CHIANTI CLASSICO SALIVOLPE 2016, 2015, 2012 GRAN SELEZIONE

Decanter
the world's best wine magazine

Vintage 2016: 92/100

One of Bertani Domains' six estates in Italy, San Leonino is located in the southern reaches of Castellina-in-Chianti. Rather than a single vineyard, the Gran Selezione is crafted from selected grapes coming from the highest vineyard sites. It is quite a charmer. Bright and well-defined showing pretty cherry and red plum underscored by white pepper and mint blossom. A full charged of fruit is backed by polished, fine-boned tannins. It won't be a long ager but will give plenty of pleasure with its delicious purity.

Vintage 2015: 92/100

Aromas of sliced plums and orange peel follow through to a medium to full body and round, chewy tannins. Juicy finish. Hints of cedar and walnuts. Drink or hold.

Vintage 2012: 92/100

Shows dried elderberries, blackcurrant compote, roasted herbs and ash. Full body with ripe and round tannins, but there is a smattering of fresh acidity that keeps this lively and very much engaged. Drink now.
