ENATE TAPAS GOLD medal in Berlin

The recent Berlin Wine Trophy competition, as organised by Deutsche Weinmarketing GmbH (DWM), saw the ENATE TAPAS 2011 wine achieve a coveted gold medal.

An international jury tasted and checked the quality of the wines presented and classified them according to international guidelines laid down by the OIV (International Organisation of Vine and Wine). A Berlin Wine Trophy prize is a guarantee of high quality for the consumer.

Furthermore, in this year's edition of the competition, the organisers intensified the quality controls with all prize-winning wines being subjected to an analysis by Dr. Witowski in the central Alzey laboratory.

This involved one of the four bottles of each wine presented into the competition being subjected to strict analysis to ensure that it was identical to the award-winning wine tasted by the judges. In this way, the Berlin Wine Trophy sets new standards for wine competitions and increases the prestige of the award-winning wines.
